Assignment: Habits

Leader: Marlene

As the Reading Room of the Library was not available to us, the Writers' Workshop met at Frutties, Planet Charmilles.

Those in attendance were Rose, (leader) Marlene (secretary).

Valarie Sacchetti a guest from Canada, tried to joined us, but due to communication failure, missed the meeting.

We received apologies from and Maureen.

Business:

Rose advised that our September meeting has been cancelled due to the fact that most members will be out of the country.

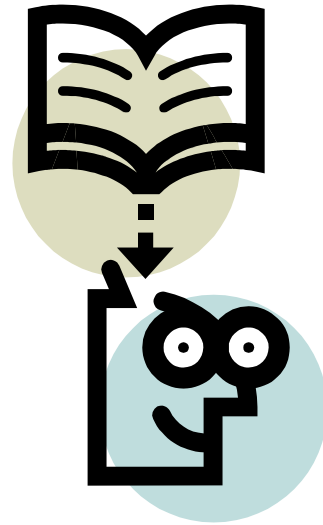

With no further business to discuss we proceeded to reading our different submissions of the optional assignment, Age.

Reading:

Marlene read her piece with the point of view that age is an attitude and the appreciation of living in the present. She compared a toddler dressed up in her mother's jewels and shoes with an elderly woman in an old age home, also wearing all her jewels. Where the toddler paraded the woman of mature age blissfully danced all alone. They were both in their own world of confidence and promise.

Our physical age need not determine how we feel or look at life.

Rose followed with An Age for Everything. During our lives we are often told we are either too young or too old to follow our dreams or do something others have not the courage to do. She used smoking and studying as examples. Her message was that lack of belief in our own abilities often holds us back. Further, motivation is in fact a strong aspect which influences our age.
