Writers' Workshop

Next Meeting February 15 2019

At 10:30

at:

The L.I.E. premises

3, rue de Monthoux

Assignment: Childhood

Leader: Zsofia

With our first meeting of the New Year we definitely felt winter in the air. We met in the Library's Reading Room as usual eager to commence 2019's writing efforts.

Those in attendance were Rose (leader), Marlene (secretary), and Zinat.

We received apologies from Zsofia and Eva

Business:

Rose welcomed everyone and wished all a creative 2019 hoping that we would surpass even our own expectations.

Rose advised that she placed various flyers and pamphlets regarding the workshop in the Library.

As there was no further business to attend to, we proceeded to reading our different compilations of the different dialogues for the Play we began in November. The end result was surprising.

Reading:

With Zsofia not able to attend she forwarded her version of the play by e-mail.

Rose began with her excellent rendition of Life in an Old Age Home. We could virtually hear Violet screech out an aria ready for her agent.

Marlene then read her combination play emphasising the fact that everyone speaks at the same time and conversations get picked up from one word caught here or there.

Zsofia's piece was read by each of us in the comfort of our home and it showed again how everyone interprets a conversation differently. Our perception brings out stories with varied flavours.
