At 10:30

at:

The L.I.E. premises

3, rue de Monthoux

Assignment: Sacred Objects

Leader: Marlene

With unseasonably warm weather it felt like spring as we met in the Library's Reading Room as usual eager to continue with the New Year's creative writing.

Those in attendance were Rose (leader) and Marlene (secretary).

We received apologies from Zsafia and Zinat

Business:

Rose discussed the Spring Book Sale which is scheduled for 5th to 7th of April 2019. Anyone who has books they wish to donate should do so well before the above dates.

Zsafia advised in an e-mail that a friend Quentin is very interested in joining our group. We look forward to meet and welcome him.

As there was no further business to attend to, we proceeded to reading our different pieces on Childhood.

Reading:

With Zsofia not able to attend due to the flu Rose led the reading.

Marlene read her childhood memory entitled The Next Wave. She recounted the joy she and her sister had at the ages of eleven and thirteen by swimming in the sea and diving into oncoming waves before they break.

Rose followed with A Child's Eye View a fictitious account of a family's road trip. As he drives, the father thinks back on his childhood where his own father left and his mother later walked out as well, leaving him to grow up in a Home. Now with his own family and the children constantly asking whether they've reached their destination he has finally found his home.
