Business: Rose welcomed Ann Richter, a prospective new member.

There being no further business to discuss, members' contributions were put forward.

Readings:

As the topic was open, the contributions were varied.

Zinat's story, Days of Fasting, related her personal feelings on fasting during the annual Muslim month-long period of Ramadan, in which time becomes cosmic, not regulated, and of the spiritual force that keeps her going right the way through.

Rose's piece, entitled Conversation in a Café, relates a chance encounter between two strangers in a café that should never have happened and which finishes without a conventional ending.

A lively discussion followed each submission.
