Lieu: Frutties

Planet Charmilles, Charmilles.

Assignment: Friendship

Leader: Rose

We braved freezing weather and negative temperatures, to meet at Planet Charmilles, as the Reading Room in the Library was not available to us. We ordered our tea and settled down in comfort for our meeting. Our meetings will be held at Frutties until further notice.

In attendance was Rose, (leader) and Marlene (secretary). Françoise, Zinat, Carol. and Kartik. passed on their apologies.

Business:

Rose reminded us about the Spring Book Sale which will be held from 26th to 28th April 2024 at the Library.

As there was no further business to attend to, we proceeded to reading our submissions on 'Myth'.

Rose read No Boundaries. He recognised her immediately, the way she walked, the mass of her red hair, though realised that it could not be. History could not repeat itself he told himself, from the 5th to the 21st century was impossible. She also recognised him from somewhere, then was shocked as she realised when. Over lunch they spoke about their present families, except the past when Camelot fell, came rushing back. The world became even smaller when he heard that the friend she was to meet was his wife. Their lives as Lancelot and Guinevere, as well as forbidden love, belonged to the past.

Marlene followed with The Birth of Dawn and Sunset when the Lord of the Sky was hopelessly in love with Earth. He devised a scheme to win her over and roped in Father Sun to find a way to do that. Sun went to his wife Mother Moon who suggested he ask the King of Waters and approach Wind to participate. Mother Moon told Sun that two gifts from Sky would be better than only one as the first gift would be a reminder and confirmation of Sky's love and sincerity. When Earth saw the first tableau of colours, they called it Dawn and the second which was just as impressive, they called Sunset as recognition of Father Sun's contribution. From that day on Sky graced his beloved Earth with these two gifts.
